Spring 2017 Girl Scout Programs

Day & Overnight Programs

Inspired Painter

Armed with artistic inspiration from the various 18th-19th century art forms at Dumbarton House, Brownies expand their art vocabulary and create their own artwork to take home! They explore how to express themselves through a self-portrait and share a story by painting a group mural.

Painting Badge Steps: 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5

Brownies; Day or Overnight

Drawing Dumbarton

Using 200-year-old objects from the museum, Scouts explore various methods and techniques of drawing including still life, shading, perspective, and even cartoons. During this art-specific program Juniors expand their art vocabulary and take home a portfolio of their creations.

Drawing Badge Steps: 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5

Juniors; Day or Overnight

Bygone Games

With their scavenger hunt and haversack, Scouts tour the museum to learn what life would have been like for children in the Federal Period. Afterwards it's time to play! Brownies try games from the period and reinvent the rules to come up with a new game to play with their fellow Scouts.

Making Games Badge Steps: 1, 2, 3, and 4

Brownies; Day or Overnight

Playing the Past

Learning how girls lived during the Federal Period. Juniors tour the historic house to "research" their role, then it's time to pretend they are young women living in the new capital city. They write with a quill pen, play games, make a clothespin doll to take home, and end with a tea party.

Playing the Past Badge Steps: 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5

Juniors; Day or Overnight

Girl Scout Programs at Dumbarton House - have fun exploring the Federal Period in historic Georgetown!

Our programs are geared to Brownie and Junior Girl Scouts, working towards badges.

- ◆ All programs include a tour, materials, snack, and a Dumbarton House patch
