

2015 ANNUAL REPORT

Fiscal Year 2015 (September 2014 - August 2015)

Headquarters & Museum
The National Society of The Colonial Dames of America

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CHAIRMAN

Dear Friends,

This year marked the launch of a renewed brand for Dumbarton House, setting forth our identity as a national headquarters and museum telling The Story of Courage, Preservation, and the Rise of a Nation. You'll find this new visual identity reflected in the redesigned "look" of this year's Annual Report, but elements of the brand were apparent throughout the year in the work accomplished here at Dumbarton House.

Courage: In our headquarters role, we supported the NSCDA—a group of women who have had the courage to save so many important historical buildings and artifacts over the past 124 years—its 44 Corporate Societies, and over 15,000 individual members nationwide. Biennial Council meetings and workshops brought over 300 members to the Washington, DC region last fall and launched an ambitious new Strategic Plan for the Society.

Preservation: Efforts to maintain and restore our 216 year old historic house and grounds this year included rebuilding our lovely Upper Terrace Balustrade to correct dangerous structural instabilities. Meanwhile, work commenced inside on readying the museum's Lower Passage staircase to accept period appropriate carpeting.

The Rise of a Nation: The museum collection grew with the acquisition of a number of new artifacts—allowing us to tell a more complete story of the early days of our country and its new capital city; while engaging new educational and community programs helped neighbors, tourists, and students learn about this often overlooked period of American history.

These efforts only succeed thanks to the incredible generosity of friends like you across the country. We hope you enjoy reviewing the projects of this past year in the pages that follow, and we value our numerous donors, volunteers, members, and staff who make them all possible. Together, we look forward to an exciting year ahead and invite you to join us at Dumbarton House to see The Story of Courage, Preservation, and the Rise of a Nation in action each and every day.

With gratitude, we are yours truly,

Anna F. Duff

YEAR IN REVIEW

Visitation

Dumbarton House hosted a variety of programs throughout the year such as lectures, Georgetown walking tours, concerts, blood drives, outdoor film screenings, yoga sessions, and Scout programs. These programs, along with general museum visitation and guests of private events, account for nearly 23,000 visitors served at Dumbarton House in fiscal year 2015.

Preservation Symposium

In November, Dumbarton House hosted its first preservation symposium. "Looking Back, Looking Forward: New Directions in Historic Preservation" was sponsored by the NSCDA in the District of Columbia and included presentations, panel discussions, a reception, and tours of Dumbarton House. Featured speakers were Carol Cadou (NSCDA-MD) of Mount Vernon, Tobin Malone of the Knox Museum, and George McDaniel of Drayton Hall.

Sunday Serenity: Yoga in the Park

A new program began over the summer with local yoga instructor Lauren Jacobs teaching 60 minute, all-level, vinyasa flow classes on Sunday mornings. The program was so popular it was extended into the fall.

Dupont-Kalorama Museum Walk Weekend

We welcomed a record-breaking 1,200+ visitors to the museum for the annual summer Walk Weekend with the Dupont-Kalorama Museums Consortium this year! Visitors were able to tour the museum for free and watch English Country Dance performances in the ballroom.

Essay Contest

In June, high school students from across the country visited Dumbarton House as part of the Congressional Seminar Essay Contest. The essay contest has recently been refreshed by the NSCDA with the support of Washington Workshops Foundation, a private nonprofit educational program in American government for high school students. Winners of the essay contest received full tuition for an educational and fun week in our nation's capital.

Jane Austen Film Festival

The Washington Post highlighted the charm and allure of the annual Jane Austen Film Festival which was more popular this year than ever! All three showings were full and preregistration tickets sold out for the July 29th showing of Pride & Prejudice.

Day of Archaeology

Dumbarton House was pleased to host the 4th annual “Day of Archaeology” with Archaeology in the Community. We welcomed 300 visitors to the site to talk to local archaeologists and learn about the science behind archaeology.

Citizenship Ceremony

For the second year in a row, Dumbarton House worked with the US Citizenship & Immigration Services to host a citizenship ceremony celebrating children whose parents have recently become U.S. citizens. This year we welcomed 21 children from 17 different countries as new citizens and the US Citizenship and Immigration Services Director, León Rodríguez, attended the ceremony.

English Country Dance

English Country Dance is a social, folk dance form, which has earliest documented instances in the late 16th century. English Country Dance in Washington DC gathered two Sundays a month at Dumbarton House to practice this dance form, and performed at our open house events over the summer.

National Headquarters

DH staff traveled far beyond DC this year. Scott Scholz visited St. Louis for the Missouri Society Annual Meeting in December and Karen Daly visited TN museum property Travellers Rest in January. At the end of April Keri Donohoo and Karen attended the Region I & III Meeting in Oklahoma. We were also very excited to have Jerry Foust attend the Attingham Summer School in England in the summer as the 2015 NSCDA Scholar!

Acquisitions & Object Donations

Numerous objects were acquired for the museum this year, including 2 terracotta medallions of Benjamin Franklin, Quaker Farmer porcelain, and a deck of 1801 playing cards. The museum also purchased a Liverpool Pitcher showing a map of the City of Washington with funds donated by the DC Society. Donated items include a Nourse portrait and porcelain bowl from descendant Emily Richardson and a collection of letters, portrait miniatures, and watercolors from Nourse descendant Edith Bingham (KY). A mahogany sideboard and New York looking glass were also donated by Jane Deland in memory of Susan Reeves Deland (MA).

A Brand New Brand!

It brought us great joy to unveil the new Dumbarton House brand strategy at the spring Dumbarton House board meeting. We have officially launched our new brand (as seen throughout this document) and our new tagline: The Story of Courage, Preservation and the Rise of a Nation.

Rental Events

In FY2015, Dumbarton House welcomed over 4,500 guests attending private rental events. In addition to social events such as weddings, we hosted organizations such as the Embassies of Luxembourg and Latvia, The British School of Washington, the Society of Colonial Wars, and the Brookings Institute. Dumbarton House weddings and styled photoshoots often find their way to popular wedding blogs and DH is considered a top venue in the DC area.

Upper Terrace Balustrade

The upper terrace balustrade was entirely replaced in FY15 due to oscillating temperatures causing it to separate from the wall. After much support from the Save the Terrace campaign, we were pleased to have the balustrade work complete just in time for the bulk of wedding season!

Graced with Grants

We were thrilled to be the recipient of several grants in FY2015! A planning grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities (NEH) awarded in the spring will help us reimagine our interpretive plan with scholars and advisors. We were also awarded an implementation grant from NEH's Sustaining Cultural Heritage Collections program to replace our aging HVAC system. A grant from the National Trust for Historic Preservation helped us carry out a Thermal Conductivity Test to determine the site's eligibility for a geothermal HVAC system. These projects will be a major focus of the coming years and essential to our progress as an institution.

Portrait of Joseph Burton, Jr

Oil-on-canvas portrait of Joseph Nourse's maternal great-uncle, godfather, & namesake came back from conservation. The conservator painstakingly removed all the dirt, loose paint, and varnish from the portrait, then tightened the canvas and in-painted the missing areas.

The Way I See It

Curated by Avi Gupta, Director of Photography at US News & World Report, Dumbarton House opened an exhibition in the fall featuring photographs of the property submitted by the public and installed throughout the first floor of the museum.

Posey Quilt

On view from April to September, this exhibition explored an early 19th century American pieced quilt made of silk dress fabrics from a variety of women including Martha Washington and Nellie Custis. The exhibition, curated by guest curator Frances White, focused on the lives of the eight women believed to have owned the dresses and the tradition of passing this legendary quilt down from mother to oldest daughter for generations.
